NEARING END AT JUAREZ

LONG WINTER MEETING AT MEXICAN COURSE ENTERS ITS FINAL MONTH.

Last Stake Race of the Season to Be Run Today and Attracts Fine Entry List in Spite of Unfavorable Track Conditions.

El Paso, Tex., March 13.—The last month of racing here is now well on its way and after much bad luck the long meeting bids fair to come to a close with much to be said in praise of the management of the great plant, as usual.

The Jockey Club Juarez may never experience another winter like that just ending. There has been more rain and snow this winter than ever before visited this section, say the older inhabitants, and while at no time since last November has the weather been disagreeable for a considerable number of days at a stretch, from now on the best of weather is likely to prevail and local patronage of the sport will be extensive.

Summerlike weather prevailed today, but the Juarez track remained in a heavy condition in spite of the warmth of the sun's rays. It probably will require several days of fine weather to restore the course to its normal condition. Today's card was of the mediocre sort and was featureless. It was given over altogether to selling platers of the cheaper grade. Driving finishes, with the winners first home by narrow margins, marked most of the races. The two-year-old race, won by Little Blues, was a notable exception. Make Good and Mrs. Mc were the day's winning favorites.

J. W. Fuller shipped today to his ranch near Willis Point, Tex., three two-year-old fillies and the older horses Ask Ma, Captain Marchmont and Toy Boy.

Jockey Robert Small, who has just recovered from an attack of illness, will resume riding in the course of a few days.

The last stake race of the Juarez season will be run tomorrow. It is the Supremo, a half mile dash for two-year-olds, and has attracted an excellent list of entries, notwithstanding the adverse track conditions.

John K. Tener and a large party were guests of Manager Winn at the track this afternoon. Mr. Tener is a former governor of Pennsylvania and president of the National baseball league. They stopped off en route to the San Francisco exposition. All were favorably impressed with the afternoon's sport.

Jockey M. Garner was suspended for five days by the stewards for rough riding in the second race.

On account of legislation against the sport in Montana, the tracks in Kentucky will get more stables from here this season than ever before. Some few strings will go to Maryland, some will go to Colorado, and a few to the Canadian half-mile tracks, but the stables with fair racing matetrial will move on to the blue grass state. Some few will race in Nevada, but the majority of horsemen who race in the far west are waiting to ascertain just what that section will have to offer. The stables which will go to Denver are those which never leave the far west. So when April comes around the movement to Kentucky from here will resemble a hegira.

George Land, who has been here all winter looking after the horses owned by A. G. Dunlap, has gone to Louisville to take the position of foreman in the big stable of John W. Schorr, whose string was, as usual, wintered in that city, and is once more in active training there in charge of trainer J. F. Schorr. Trainer James McCormick, who has heretofore held this position with the Schorr stable, has secured the position as trainer for Emil Herz, whose string has been wintering at Churchill Downs. Phil T. Chinn, who brought the horses owned by Mr. Herz to America last fall, secured the position for Mr. McCormick, who was at one time with Chinn when the latter had in charge the horses owned by Catesby Woodford.

F. D. Weir has decided upon the course he will pursue with Old Rosebud the coming season. He has good reports from the wintering quarters of the brilliant Kentucky Derby winner of 1914 and will take no chances by hustling him with rapid preparation for early racing the coming spring. He has made up his mind not to race the son of Uncle until midsummer and he may not be seen under colors until the meeting at Saratoga is under way. Veterinarians who have thoroughly examined Old Rosebud think that by this long wait he will surely stand training again and it is anticipated that when he does return to the turf he will be as invincible as of old. He is the one four-year-old that is counted upon to give Roamer battle for the supremacy in among the older horses in training this season and if the pair can be brought together, each at his best, one of the greatest races of latter days is likely to result. Those who were fortunate enough to see Old Rosebud win his sensational Kentucky Derby race last spring will always doubt if the turf in America has ever seen a three-year-old that could have defeated him that day over any distance of ground. He showed then the dazzling speed of the fastest sprinter and was able apparently to run every quarter of the Derby route evenly. His going wrong alone prevented him from enjoying an unbeaten three-year-old career in the opinion of many good judges.

Aunt Sal, C. W. Clark's smart two-year-old filly, which won the Mexican Stakes here on February 21 is a daughter of Salvation and out of Antioch, by Frankfort, she being out of the successful broodmare Budget of Fun. John Lowe thinks highly of this filly and if no training accident befalls her she is certain to give a good account of herself when she starts at Churchill Downs this spring. Lowe will have quite a stable of horses to ship to Kentucky next month. He will sell Ypress, Spindle and The Cinder and perhaps one or two others. Those he will take to Kentucky, in addition to Aunt Sal, include Frisky, Bas Blancs, Fathom, Brynlimah, Florence Roberts, General Marchmont, El Palomar and Theodorita. It is a useful collection and Aunt Sal and Frisky may as the season advances prove something more than ordinary youngsters.

H. W. Hoag has decided to retire the mare Orba Smile and will likely trade her to trainer Hatt Newman for a colt at the close of the meeting here. If Mr. Newman secures her she will be mated with Abe Frank next month. She is a well bred mare, being a daughter of Smile, out of Orbed Maiden, the dam of Orbed Lad, Orbicular and Orbiculation. She is now eight years old and has been an annual winner since she first began racing. She did not start as a two-year-old and raced only a few times as a three-year-old. The following season she won four races, while as a five-year-old she won eight races, and six races in 1913 as a six-year-old. She also won several races last year and this, so she had nearly twenty-five races to her credit during her career on the turf.

Kentucky race goers will not see that flying sprinter Joe Blair in action this spring, as there are few races for all-aged horses on the Kentucky circuit at less than six furlongs. The colt's owner, George S Martin, has decided to ship him to one of the Maryland tracks at the conclusion of the meeting here, then, if he shows a disposition to race well over five and a half furlongs, will send him to Kentucky in the fall. Joe Blair's speed is unquestioned, but his ability to run well for as far as six furlongs is yet a matter of doubt, that is, when racing with any horse that can keep within striking distance of him in the early part of the race.

NEW RACING ESTABLISHMENT THAT PROMISES TO REVIVE OHIO'S PRESTIGE IN THOROUGHBRED SPORT

Louisville, Ky., March 13.—The new racing firm of Corrigan & McKinney has made an auspicious beginning with its newly organized stable. These sportsmen are looked upon as turfmen who will give the city of Cleveland, Ohio, a place of high honor in racing. In the next few years they will send to the races the product of the mares which once composed the famous stud of James R. Keene, by the sires which made that New Yorker so famous in his life time as a turfman both in this country and abroad.

In recent years Ohio has had no turfmen of marked prominence, wealth and social standing. In the old days D. J. Crouse, who raced Chillicothe, Add, Business and Willie D., was rated as a repesetntative turfman and the same applies to D. R. Harness, who became famous as the breeder and owner of that sensational mare, Imp. John R. Reber, who imported Hurrah and Kyrle Daly, will always have a place in the racing annals of the Buckeye state, and Harry M. Zeigler's name will ever be prominent whenever the turf triumphs of the mighty Hermis are recalled.

Though Corrigan & McKinney have at present but five horses in training, they own in Ghetto Girl a filly that many horsemen think may prove a turf queen. This filly won her first start February 28 at Juarez, the race being the Chapultepec Handicap. In this stake she met and defeated a good lot of three-year-olds, some of which have fair race winning records. Her owners have entered her for the Kentucky Derby, as well as the Kentucky Oaks, and have about decided to have her trainer, W. C. Clancy, fit her for the big $10,000 added event, as well as train her with the Oaks race in view. The Derby this year will be run on Saturday, May 8, the opening day of the spring meeting of the New Louisville Jockey Club, and she can run in the race and then have a rest until Friday, May 21, when the Oaks is run, or the closing day of the meeting at Churchill Downs.

The Kentucky Derby has never been won by a filly, but new things often turn up in racing and some day, even if Ghetto Girl fails, as has so often happened to horses of her sex in the historic event, a filly will come to the big race with the speed, endurance and class that will enable her to show her heels to the colts in the big race, as has come to pass on several occasions in the English Derby at Epsom Downs.

Ghetto Girl was bred and foaled in Kentucky, though her breeder, the late J. S. McCullough, was an Illinois turfman. She was broken as a yearling and trained as a two-year-old by James Griffin. Before he could race her, however, her owner died and this necessitated her being turned out of training with the rest of the horses, as the executor of the estate ordered all the thoroughbred stock sold. The entire collection was disposed of at public auction last fall at Lexington and Ghetto Girl's present owner got her on a bid of $1,600.

She is a daughter of Ben Brush, which won the Kentucky Derby in the colors of M. J. Dwyer in 1896, and whose grandson, Meridian, beat Governor Gray in the classic in 1911. Her dam, Debacle, is an English-bred mare, a daughter of the Epsom Derby winner Bend Or and a stud matron which has never as yet failed to produce a winner. She has so far had only four foals to live to a racing age, namely Hanbridge, Judge Wright, Crash and Ghetto Girl. Crash was a smart filly raced by Pat Dunne and was cut down in a race at Churchill Downs as a two-year-old. Mr. Dunne succeeded in saving her for breeding purposes and she is now in the Mere Hill Stud of C. W. Moore, near Lexington, which breeder owns her sire, imported McGee. Hanbridge is in the stud of his owner, William Gerst, in Tennessee. He was a brilliant race horse and won a long string of races. Hanbridge is by Banastar, winner of the Brooklyn and Metropolitan handicaps, and her other winner, Judge Wright, is a son of Superman, another Brooklyn Handicap winner. All the good performers so far produced by Debacle are by different sires. Her son, Judge Wright, was unbeaten as a two-year-old and had he stood training as a three-year-old he might have won the Kentucky Derby of his year. He is still owned by F. J. Pons and, like his near relative, Hanbridge, is destined for stud service in Tennessee.

Price McKinney now owns Debacle, but he will have to wait awhile for a foal of his own breeding from her, as she was barren to the Futurity winner, Sweep, this season. Her only other foal was a colt by the Futurity winner, Yankee, which died as a yearling and if he was alive now would be a four-year-old. Clarence H. Mackey once owned Debacle, but for some reason his manager, Charles F. Hill, formed a dislike for her and in this way she became Mr. McCullough's property. She was a good purchase and has so far filled every requirement as a stud matron.

Ghetto Girl is rather a dark bay in color and a Bonnie Scotland type to a great extent. She resembles in no small degree that great race mare of the late seventies and early eighties, Beatitude, though of a bigger mold than was that performer. She will go to Kentucky with an unbeaten record and this prestige, with her high conformation and fashionable breeding, entitles her to consideration in any race in which she goes to the post. If she cou'd win either the Derby or the Oaks her victory would be popular, since her owners are newcomers in racing and gentlemen of the most liberal ideas in all their undertakings. Her success in any big race in Kentucky would bring back to mind the days when Dwyer Bros. raced many famous horses, as she will carry the colors borne to victory by Hindoo in the Kentucky Derby of 1881. P. J. Dwyer has passed on to this firm the historic red with blue sash.

With the exceptions of turfman Zeigler, Messrs. Corrigan & McKinney will in the next year or two race the biggest stable owned by any Ohio racing establishment since the late "Doc" McLean, who won the Tennessee Derby with Berclair and Jamboree, and captured many other big races with various other members of his powerful racing stable, before his tragic end at the Oakley track in 1896.

DERBY CANDIDATES AT LEXINGTON.

Lexington, Ky., March 13.—Eighteen of the sixty-eight eligibles to the next Kentucky Derby are in training at the Kentucky Association track here, and that represents one more than the number in training at Louisville, where the race for the highly coveted prize to be run. Not a few people are of the opinion that the winner may be among the eighteen, only two of which are maidens.

The most conspicuous of this collection of good three-year-olds is Senator Johnson N. Camden's one-eyed colt, Luke, winner of last year's Breeders' Futurity. He is being pointed for the Derby by that veteran trainer, Peter Wimmer, and yesterday morning he worked his first mile of this year in 1:56. It is not to be expected that Solly, his recently injured stable companion, will get to the post in the Derby, but he is improving rapidly and it is now said that he will be able to race by fall at least.

J. S. Hawkins is training two of the eligibles—Chalmers and Hank O'Day—both of which are doing famously. Chalmers was second to Luke in the Breeders' Futurity and won more races—eight—than any other candidate. Hank O'Day, now the property of Mr. Hawkins, is one of the most improved horses at the track and is in big demand, but Mr. Hawkins has consistently turned down all offers for him.

Jack Baker is training two—Emerson Cochran, winner of fifty per cent. of his twelve starts and one of the stars of last season, and Pit Jr., a much better colt than his races of last season indicate. There are some here who consider him a hard luck colt, but he is as fast as lightning.

T. C. McDowell's pair of good lookers—Manager Waite and Liberator—are moving along nicely.

Will Perkins has three of the eligibles in his barn—Booker Bill and Marion Goosby, property of M. C. Moore, and Tetan, owned by W. T. Crosthwaite. Booker Bill has developed into an exceptionally good-looking colt and Tetan is much improved in appearance.

W. J. Young is training Leo Ray and Greville. Leo Ray is the property of J. T. Looney, one of the owners of the Lexington baseball club and a prosperous business man, and the trainers here regard him as a colt that must be taken into consideration whenever figures are made on the Derby possibilities. He is highly improved over his two-year-old appearance.

Commonada, which ran out all winter at Walter Payne's farm, was taken up about a month ago by Will Perkins and was turned over to Al Austin upon his arrival here from New Orleans. This son of The Commoner is looking well.

J. O. Keene is training Fred Forsythe's La Patrie, one of the best, if not the best three-year-old fillies in the state, and she is to be pointed for both the Derby and the Oaks.

L. Weiss' Stalwart Helen is being trained by "Slim" Moore and she is an attractive filly. She wintered at Chicago and arrived here February 15.

For Fair, the best horse at New Orleans this winter, is being trained by G. M. Miller, who arrived here a couple of weeks ago, and this son of Fair Play compares favorably with other Derby eligibles here.

Andrew M., owned by Arthur B. Hancock, is in J. C. Milam's stable and is a good-looking colt.

Bars and Stars, the E. R. Bradley candidate, is still at Idle Hour Farm, where he is said to be training satisfactorily, though there is still some suspicion as to one of his legs.

Of the horses named above, Solly, Luke, Andrew M., Chalmers, Leo Ray, Manager Waite, Booker Bill are candidates for the Camden Handicap, at one mile and a quarter, which is to be one of the features of the Kentucky Association spring meeting, and La Patrie and Stalwart Helen are eligible for the Ashland Oaks.

J. O. KEENE'S YOUNG THOROUGHBREDS.

Lexington, Ky., March 13.—John Oliver Keene had a party of his friends, including Fred A. Forsythe, J. D. Adkins and Charles H. Hughes, out to his Keeneland Farm last Sunday for dinner, after which he exhibited his yearlings and broodmares.

The star of his collection appears to be the bay filly by Peter Quince, dam Micaela. This is a sister to Carmen, the filly Mr. Keene sold a few weeks ago to Schuyler L. Parsons, of New York, for $5,000. She is about the best looking youngster of her sex in these parts. "What a sprinty looking thing she is," remarked Jack Adkins, as the filly came into view. Another speedy-looking filly is the brown daughter of Jack Atkins and Lady Alicia, by Sir Dixon. The bay filly by Order, dam Zara (a daughter of Mazagan and My Beauty), is all English in blood and appearance and is well worth while.

The bay colt by Celt—Mildred Shulz is bred on shares with the James R. Keene estate and is to be sold by auction here May 4, to divide the partnership. The bay colt by Ultimus, dam Winnie Cook, by Montana, is also to go under the hammer at the same time for the same reason. Both are good individuals.

The chestnut colt by Ormondale—Fleur de Marie is of a good type and created a favorable impression on trainer Hughes. The bay filly by Ormondale—Agnes Virginia is a half sister to a good two-year-old Mr. Keene has at the Kentucky Association course, which is by Jack Atkin, and has been named Jacoba, but this yearling is leggy and not nearly so good an individual as is Jacoba. The chestnut filly by Samson—Flower, for which Mr. Keene and Emil Herz paid $125 as a weanling, has four white stockings and a blaze face, and is well made.

The other three yearlings in the barn are the property of Fred A. Forsythe, of which the brown colt by Out of Reach—Balzane (dam of Belloc) is probably the pick), though the bay colt by Dorante—Pepita (dam of Baby Cal) is not far behind him and would be his decided superior had he straight hind legs. The other colt is a bay of likely conformation by Out of Reach—Stolen Moments.

Mr. Keene says none of his yearlings save the Celt and Ultimus colts are for sale. He intends to train and race them. However, he has no desire to train any horses this year and says that if he should sell Jacoba and Purple Cross, a two-year-old filly by Order—Phoebe G., the only two he has in training, he would remain away from the track until next fall and devote all his time to his farm, which he is now improving with macadam roadways and new fencing and on which he will soon erect a new barn and bungalow.

Aside from his two yearlings, Mr. Keene is training La Patrie for Fred Forsythe. She is a candidate for the Ashland, Kentucky and the Latonia Oaks, and Mr. Forsythe has high hopes for her in all three of these events and said so at dinner. Jack Adkins, who happened to hear what Mr. Forsythe said, interposed that R. J. Mackenzie's filly, Sea Shell, which he is training, would be a stumbling block in the way of the fulfilment of Mr. Forsythe's hopes.

STILL DEBATING PLAN OF PROCEDURE.

Hot Springs, Ark., March 13.—There was an intention of holding a one-day betless meeting at Oaklawn March 17, to obtain funds to meet the deficit from last fall's state fair, but the plan is impractical, as there are no horses here. It may be decided Monday to stage for St. Patrick's day a number of novelty events, with possibly one or two thoroughbred dashes, using the seven or eight horses available. L. A. Cella has consented to the use of the track. The racing will in no way have any bearing on any court tests to be made. The committee having in charge the court proceedings to establish the validity of their contention that the Sawyer bill is a law, have not yet perfected the plans as to the proper procedure for bringing the case into court. The plans, it is thought, will be thoroughly perfected Monday and proceedings at once started.

FINE FIELD FOR THE OAKS

BEST FILLIES IN AMERICA ELIGIBLE FOR HISTORIC CHURCHILL DOWNS EVENT.

Companion Piece to Kentucky Derby Attracts an Entry List of Forty-three, Including Regret, Comely and Other Stars.

Louisville, Ky., March 13.—Secretary Hamilton C. Applegate of the New Louisville Jockey Club today made public the list of nominations recently received for the forty-first running of the Kentucky Oaks at Churchill Downs in May next. This race for three-year-old fillies has a history exactly paralleling that of the Kentucky Derby and has always been run as a companion piece to the Derby itself. For its approaching renewal it has received forty-three entries, including such celebrities of last season's racing as Harry Payne Whitney's unbeaten Regret, James Butler's Comely and Capra, Gallaher Bros.'s Vogue, Mackenzie & Adkins' Sea Shell, T. C. McDowell's Waterblossom, J. E. Madden's Charter Maid, J. W. Schorr's Aunt Josie and J. A. Thomson's Ormulu. All in all, it may safely be counted that the nominations represent a higher degree of quality than in any recent running of this historic race. The full list of the entries is as follows:

W. H. Baker's Grecian.
E. R. Bradley's Brig's Sister.
James Butler's Comely, Capra, Diploma and Masks.
J. N. Camden's One Step.
Corrigan & McKinney's Ghetto Girl.
W. W. Darden's Margaret D.
J. J. Flannigan's Misty Morn.
F. A. Forsythe's La Patrie.
Gallaher Bros.' Vogue.
C. W. Gasser's Sinai.
J. G. Greener's Fleetabelle.
A. B. Hancock's Embroidery.
S. M. Henderson's Tory Maid.
H. H. Hewitt's Pan Maid and Hazzaza.
Quincy Stable's Hanovia.
F. J. Kelley's September Morn.
Mackenzie & Adkins' Sea Shell.
James MacManus' Menlo Park and Gilt Edge.
T. C. McDowell's Water Blossom and Dark Flower.
J. E. Madden's Charter Maid.
Andrew Miller's Lady Rotha.
M. C. Moore's Flossie Crocket.
A. H. Morris' Disillusion.
W. R. Mizell's Mallard and Mabel Montgomery.
John W. Schorr's Aunt Josie.
J. A. Thomson's Ormulu and Siggle Maid.
W. S. Threlkeld's Sweetheart Sue.
R. J. Walden's Rusila.
S. Waring's Kittie May.
F. D. Weir's Stalwart Helen.
H. P. Whitney's Regret and Spun Glass.
W. Woodard's Aledo.
W. J. Young's Water Witch.

GOSSIP FROM BLUE GRASS REGION.

Lexington, Ky., March 13.—A message from Judge William A. Shelley at Juarez announced that he would arrive here Monday, April 5, to take up his duties as secretary for the spring meeting at the local track.

Hugh McCarren arrived here today with eight horses, including Jacob Bunn and his old campaigner, Camel.

J. C. Milam has sent Maud B. L. to John Morris at Versailles to be mated with Plaudit.

Clay Bros. have leased from August Belmont, for the season of 1915, the French-bred stallion Vulcain, by Rock Sand—Lady of the Vale.

The following moves were observed over the Kentucky Association track this morning:

Chalmers—Three-quarters in 1:25.
Dr. Kendall—Half mile in 54.
For Fair—Three-quarters in 1:20.
Hank O'Day—Three-quarters in 1:22.
Margaret Lowery—Five-eighths in 1:07.
Mattie C.—Half mile in 51.
Nigra—Five-eighths in 1:04.
Silver Bill—Three-quarters in 1:21.
Uncle Dick—Five-eighths in 1:06½.

The following thoroughbred foals are reported as of this week at various farms in the vicinity of Lexington: Thomas Piatt's Attentive, chestnut colt by Marathon; Thomas Piatt's Sweet Nell, brown colt by Dick Welles; H. H. Hewitt's Lucky Wave, bay colt by Peep o'Day; J. B. Respess' Woodlawn Belle, chestnut filly by Dick Welles; W. T. Anderson's Prinzessin, bay filly by Peep o'Day; J. B. Viley's Domino Whist, bay colt by Ferole; Barbee & Aste's Sweet Marjorie, bay filly by Eyebrow; Alfred Vogler's Serpenta, bay filly by Transvaal; Glen Helen Stud's Evaline (dam of Ed Crump), bay filly by Peep o'Day.

ARIZONA BILL UP TO GOVERNOR.

Phoenix, Ariz., March 13.—The second state legislature has adjourned after having failed to pass most of the important bills introduced during its sixty-day session, owing to its antagonism to Governor Hunt. The pari-mutuel horse racing bill was dragged out of committee finally and passed by a vote of 18 to 17. It passed the senate several days before and will become a law upon being signed by the governor. Governor Hunt said he would make no statement regarding his action on the bill for some days.

TWO MORE PURSES FOR H. G. BEDWELL.

Havana, Cuba, March 13.—H. G. Bedwell won two purses at Oriental Park today, with Master Joe and Elwah. Neither was a favorite. Chilla and Poppee were the winning choices. The latter, from the McDowell stable, accounted for the two-year-old scramble and equaled the track record of 35⅘ for three-eighths of a mile in doing so.

STAKE PROGRAM AT PIMLICO.

Baltimore, Md., March 13.—The Maryland Jockey Club has opened for entries the Clabaugh Memorial Cup, $1,000 added, for two-year-olds bred in Maryland, Virginia or Pennsylvania, four and a half furlongs, and the Preakness Handicap, for three-year-olds, $1,500 added, one mile and an eighth, both of which are to be run during the May meeting at Pimlico this year. Entries for these events will close April 15. All entries made for the Clabaugh Memorial Cup are eligible, without any additional charge except starting fee, to the Walden Stakes, for two-year-olds, to be run next fall. The Pimlico Nursery, $1,000 added, for two-year-olds, which closed October 10 last with forty-two entries, will also be run this spring and the program also will include the Pimlico Spring Handicap, for three-year-olds and upward, $1,000 added, one mile and a sixteenth, and the Crickmore Steeplechase Handicap, for four-year-olds and upward, $1,000, two miles.

The spring meeting of the Maryland Jockey Club will be held at Pimlico, May 1-18, inclusive. The program of the meeting will be published about April 10, and will be made to suit, as far as possible, the requirements of the horsemen likely to participate, and contain one steeplechase each day.

Owing to the limited stabling accommodations, horsemen should not ship to Pimlico unless provided with stalls either by the association or procured by themselves on the outside, Secretary W. P. Riggs says.

The late closing of the Clabaugh Memorial will be responsible for an increased entry list. Already seventeen owners, representing about fifty youngsters, have made entry. More are expected before the closing date. The Maryland Jockey Club will present a piece of plate to the breeder of the winner.

Secretary Riggs announced that seven races would be run daily during the Pimlico meeting, beginning at 2:30 o'clock. The daily program will include two races for two-year-olds and a steeplechase.

LORD CURZON WOULD SUSPEND RACING.

London, Eng., March 13.—Lord Curzon of Kedleston writes to the Times today urging the suspension of the Derby and the Ascot and other race meetings during the war. He says he thinks the continuance of the racing while the allies are suffering privations and tortures might be misconstrued abroad, where he declares there already is some suspicion of British earnestness.

The sight of thousands of persons streaming into the Epsom and Ascot courses, as for a carnival occasion, just at the time when the war is likely to reach a climax would not be calculated to remove that suspicion, Lord Curzon asserts.

EUROPEAN WAR DEVELOPMENTS.

Berlin says that the German government will disavow the action of the captain of the Prinz Eitel Friedrich in sinking the American sailing vessel William P. Frye and will make reparation for what is regarded as an unwarranted violation of the international obligations recognized by Germany in this war, so far as neutrals are concerned. It also may be stated, says the dispatch, that the news of the destruction of a ship sailing under the United States flag and carrying a cargo which could not be condemned as contraband under Germany's own rules, has created a feeling of regret in official circles. The German foreign office will within a short time formally express regrets to the Washington government, according to authoritative information, and will announce that Captain Thierechens of the Prinz Eitel Friedrich acted entirely upon his own initiative in the matter. Determination of the extent of the repairs required on the Prinz Eitel Friedrich and the time to be allowed for them has been postponed until Monday. A considerable period of time, probably as much as three weeks, and possibly more, will be allotted to the German cruiser. Information received at the navy department at Washington led high officials of the government to believe that Commander Thierichens of the Prinz Eitel Friedrich has determined to make a bold dash out of Hampton roads, in the hope of evading the British cruisers lying off the capes, in the event that weather conditions are favorable for such an exploit. The time limit specified for repairs will be kept secret, according to the plan always followed in such cases.

Further successes for the armies of Field Marshal von Hindenburg in their new drive against the five great Russian fortresses of north Poland—Novo Georgievsk, Pultusk, Ostrolenka, Ossowiec and Grodno—are reported in official dispatches from both Berlin and Petrograd. The most violent fighting of the Poland campaign is in progress along the center and at the eastern end of this line, around Przasnysz and Ostrolenka and in the vicinity of Augustowo. North and northwest of Przasnysz the Germans probably have made the most important, if not the greatest progress. In that region more than 3,000 Russians were taken prisoner Friday, the Berlin official statement claims, and northwest of Ostrolenka 200 more were captured, while north of Augustowo it is stated that the hasty retreat of the Russians toward Grodno alone saved them from annihilation. Here more than 4,000 were captured. Among these were two commanders. The Russian official statement devotes attention to the fighting in the south, where, it is claimed, 4,000 Austrians, including seventy officers and eleven guns, have been captured. The towns of Lupkow and Smolnik, with their surrounding heights, are reported to have been taken by the Russians, and the cossacks have annihilated three squadrons of the Prussian hussars. The fighting strength of a hussar squadron is 150 men.

Rival reports of operations against the Dardanelles continue to conflict to a great degree. The official announcement is made in Constantinople that three of the Anglo-French fleets mine sweepers and one transport have been sunk and that the bombardment so far has been a failure, while English reports from Athens say that forts Hamidieh and Chanak-Kalesi have been badly battered and that "Fort Chimikli alone continues to hold out." This statement, no doubt, refers only to the group of fortifications about the narrows. The British battleship Triumph, it is announced in London, has been damaged by the Turk shells. A determined effort to take Smyrna, chief city of Asiatic Turkey, is being made by the allied naval forces. Six warships from the allied fleet at the Dardanelles have re-enforced Rear Admiral Peirse's squadron.

The British auxiliary cruiser Bayano was torpedoed at 5 o'clock Thursday morning in the neighborhood of Corsewall Point in the Irish sea. Only 26 of the crew of 215 were rescued. They were landed at Ayr by the Belfast steamer Balarino, which found them afloat on wreckage. The Bayano was torpedoed without warning. Within five minutes of the explosion the Bayano went down by the head. The torpedo must have shattered her forward life boats and rafts, which were smashed to pieces. A great column of water was blown into the air to a height of more than 100 yards. Most of the crew were in their berths when the explosion occurred. The Bayano was doing patrol duty.

The Italian government continues to maintain an impenetrable silence regarding negotiations reported to be under way with Austria concerning territorial concessions. Nothing has been added to the semi-official announcement that Italy has not undetaken negotiations, but simply has listened to proposals emanating from Germany through that country's ambassador, Prince von Buelow. There are persistent reports in Rome that Austria has refused even to discuss the possible cession of Trieste and would concede only a small part of the province of Trent. The assertion is made in military circles that Italy is prepared for any eventuality.

An iron-clad blockade of German ports has been agreed upon by Great Britain and France, according to information from Paris. It is understood that the proclamation of the blockade will be issued Monday evening. The proclamation, which will declare the blockade in effect from March 15, will state that no ship of any nationality will be permitted to enter or leave German ports, no matter what its cargo. This action, sealing German ports to all commerce, will be backed by the full power of the French and British fleets.

The crew of the British bark Conway Castle, sunk by the German cruiser Dresden off Corral (a seaport of Chile), on its way to Liverpool with a cargo of barley, was landed at Valparaiso by the Peruvian ship Larton. The sinking of the Conway Castle is the first exploit of the Dresden reported since the naval battle off the Falklands in which the Dresden took part. After this fight British and Japanese cruisers are reported to have searched vainly in the south Pacific for the German boat.

Unofficial advices were received in Paris to the effect that Lille is being bombarded by heavy British guns and that the German staff had left Lille preparatory to its evacuation by the troops who have held it for several months. The French war office refused to confirm these reports, but it was stated that the progress of the British troops, in which the Canadian contingent is fighting bravely, is likely to result in a complete shift of the Germans' right wing to more secure positions.

In the western theater of war the progress of the British troops following their capture of Nueve Chapelle continues, according to the Paris official communique. They also have occupied the village of Lepinette, about two miles east of Armentiers. East of Lombartzyde the capture of a small German fort is claimed by the French, who also have taken several trenches and a field fort in their advance through the Champagne district.

The British steamer Churchill arrived at Pernambuco with the crew and 143 passengers of the French steamer Guadeloupe. The Guadeloupe was sunk near the island of Fernando de Noronha, in the south Atlantic, 125 miles off the east extremity of Brazil, to which country it belongs, by the German auxillary cruiser Kronprinz Wilhelm. The Guadeloupe sailed from Buenos Aires on February 13 for Bordeaux.

More progress has been made by the British in the vicinity of Neuve Chapelle, won several days ago from the Germans after terrific fighting. Stubborn counter attacks by the kaiser's men have been repulsed and the British have taken possession of that part of the enemy's line between Pietre and a mill by that name, capturing 400 prisoners, including five officers.

The German submarine U-29 on Thursday torpedoed and sank the French steamer Auguste Conseil of the Compagnie des Chargeurs, Reunis. The crew was saved and landed at Falmouth, England. The vessel sank twenty-two miles south of Start Point, off the Devonshire coast of England. The Auguste Conseil was a steel screw steamer of 2,952 tons gross.

A report from Belgium states that several new German divisions have been sent to La Bassee to retrieve the ground lost recently. The movement of the wounded has been held up to permit the passage of these troops and howitzers from Ghent. The area around Knocke and Westende is filled with infantry ready to overwhelm the allies.

The German official statement of yesterday says: "The Russians have retreated from the Augustowo district, and the country to the northeast, until now they are beyond the river Bobr and under the guns of Grodno. At a point northeast of Przasnysz, near Orzyo river, a Russian attack has been repulsed."

The Swedish steamer Anna struck a mine off Scarborough, on the east coast of England yesterday morning and foundered. Two members of the crew were killed by the explosion. Eighteen were rescued by a passing steamer.

Vice-Admiral Carden, commanding the British fleet operating against the Dardanelles has expressed the opinion that the allies will be able to hammer their way through the straits before Easter, according to an Athens dispatch to the Paris Journal.

Five hundred German workmen from Kiel and Hamburg are employed in the dock yards at Hoboken, Belgium, assembling and building German submarines, the first of which probably will be launched soon, Amsterdam hears.

Five British warships were patrolling off Newport News yesterday to head off any attempt by the Prinz Eitel Friedrich at a sudden dash for freedom.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES OF THE DAY.

Harry K. Thaw was acquitted yesterday of conspiracy in escaping from the Matteawan asylum August 17, 1913, the charge upon which he was brought back to New York from New Hampshire. Roger Thompson, Richard J. Butler, Eugene Duffy and Thomas Flood, the four men who assisted him in his spectacular flight by automobile from Matteawan to Canada, also were acquitted. As soon as the verdict was announced Thaw was given into custody of Sheriff Grifenhagen of New York county. The four codefendants were discharged. A motion to have Thaw committed to Matteawan as an insane person was made by Deputy Attorney-General Cook immediately after the verdict. This motion was opposed by Thaw's counsel, who announced that as Thaw was brought to New York on the conspiracy charge and found not guilty, he should be returned to the state of New Hampshire as a sane man. Formal motion that he be so returned was then made by Thaw's lawyers. Justice Page announced that he would hear arguments on this motion Monday afternoon. Meanwhile Thaw was returned to the Tombs.

Japan has backed down in some of its demands made on China shortly after the fall of Kiau-Chau, and which for two months have been the subject of negotiations. The mikado's government is prepared to modify the proposed clauses concerning the Hanang, Tayeh, and Ping-Siang mining concessions, and revise its requirements concerning Japanese residents and traders in Manchuria and Mongolia. Japan already has agreed to the Chinese counter proposals to discuss Manchuria and Mongolia and the final agreement to revise its demands is considered a victory for Chinese statesmanship. The demands as now presented have been drafted in the form of a treaty or agreement between China and Japan, and probably will be ratified as soon as the conferences, which still are proceeding, have been completed.

According to Privy Councilor Bornhardt of the economic commission appointed by the German government to promote Belgian business interests, progress is being made toward normal industrial and transportation activity. It is stated that 107,000 miners are working half time in the coal mines, as against 145,000 who operate the mines normally. The daily production of coal has reached 35,000 tons. Herr Bornhardt says the main lines of the railways are being operated by the German military, but that the other lines have resumed traffic under Belgian management. Freight and passenger traffic is increasing steadily, the canals again are operating, and general business confidence is returning.

The Chinese government has official information to the effect that the second Japanese squadron, conveying two divisions of approximately 30,000 soldiers, has sailed for China. The forwarding of these troops will increase the number of Japanese soldiers in the garrisons in China to nearly 60,000. The new troops will be distributed in Manchuria, Shantung, Tientsin and Hankow, where the present forces at the Japanese garrisons number nearly 30,000.

Count Sergius Julovich Witte, Russia's first prime minister, died Friday night. Count Witte, who was born June 29, 1849, at Tiflis, was one of the Russian plenipotentiaries at Portsmouth, N. H., in the negotiations for peace with Japan in 1905. He afterward was made a count and appointed president of the new ministry, but retired in 1906 and held no important post after that time.

The White Star liner Arabic, flying the British flag, reached New York yesterday from Liverpool with 537 passengers and 8,264 sacks of mail, said to be the largest consignment ever sent from England to America. Passengers said torpedo boat destroyers accompanied the vessel from the mouth of the Mersey far out to sea to protect it from attack by German submarines.

The court martial which has been hearing the case of the soldiers in the thirty-third and thirty-fourth Bulgarian regiments, who in July, 1913, were sent against the Roumanians, but deserted, has just given its decision. A lieutenant colonel, two majors, twenty minor officers, and 100 men—123 in all—of these regiments are sentenced to be hanged.

Word that the murderers of John B. McManus in Mexico City already have faced a firing squad is expected by the state department. Advices from the Brazilian minister are that General Salazar, Zapatista commander of the federal district, has promised to comply in every way with the demands for reparation by the United States.

The United States Circuit Court of Appeals at Cincinnati yesterday reversed the one-year jail sentence and $5,000 fine given John H. Patterson, president of the National Cash Register company of Dayton, O., and remanded the case against Patterson and twenty-six associates for a new trial.

Release of the American steamer Honduras, held in port at Key West with a cargo of war munitions for General Carranza at Vera Cruz, was ordered by custom headquarters after receipt of word from the state department.

The Canadian Pacific liner Montrose is ashore near Mbura, Senegal, on the west coast of Africa. Her wireless is calling for assistance. The Montrose is a 7,207-ton four-masted steamer built in 1897.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

T. Nolan rode Barn Dance in race 19648 instead of J. Bauer, as previously reported.

Former jockey Tom Rodrock is handling the hunters of Oakleigh Thorne at Millbrook, N. Y.

Capt. E. B. Cassatt has four jockeys in his employ—T. A. Davies, E. W. Campbell, J. P. Ryan and F. M. Smith.

The jumps of the steeplechase course at Clyde Park, the Country Club's home at Brookline, Mass., are being rebuilt for the June meeting.

Manager John Hachmeister plans to return to Cincinnati about April 1 to personally assume charge of the contemplated improvements at Latonia.

James McLaughlin, Sr. and E. H. Hanna have been reappointed patrol judges for the meeting of the Westchester Racing Association at Belmont Park.

The overnight purses at Belmont Park this spring will range from $400 to $600 and the Westchester Racing Association will increase them if patronage warrants such a course.

Steeplechasing will be one of the features of the spring meeting at Havre de Grace. Secretary Rehberger is about ready to publish his program, which will include at least four events across country each week.

L. A. Cassidy has returned to New York from a trip to El Paso, were he signed jockey Max Garner for a three-year contract to ride for J. L. Holland. This lad is a younger brother of Charles and Guy Garner. The latter is at present under contract to James Stern in France, where he has a yearly retainer of $10,000. The contract for the services of Max, who is fifteen years of age and capable of riding at 85 pounds, was made with his mother, and the price paid was $7,200.

Samuel Newman, of Cleveland, of Morgan & Newman, owners of the race horses Sands Diamond, Phil Unger, Henry Wynd, George Morgan and many others which were seized in a suit at New Orleans brought by trainer Al Luzader for salary, has brought about a settlement with Luzader by which the horses were released. He paid Luzader $153 and stated that the suit, which was for a much larger amount, was unjust. He announced that Ed Moore would train the stable in the future.

In the suit of the Teutonic Bank and Trust company against Dominick J. Tortorich, Samuel F. Heaslip and the firm of Legarde Bros., for $18,572.26, on three promisory notes, secured by pledge of forty-two shares of stock of the New Orleans Jockey Club, Judge Parker has given judgment at New Orleans against D. J. Tortorich and L. D. Lagarde, and in favor of Samuel F. Heaslip and John D. Lagarde. This was the suit in which Mr. Heaslip swore that the signatures to the notes purporting to be his were not genuine.

APPRECIATED GEN. SHERWOOD'S SPEECH.

Washington, D. C., March 13.—Just before congress adjourned Representative I. R. Sherwood paid a high tribute to the race horse and the sport of racing. He traced the high history of the horse from the days of Buddha to the present and urged congress to devote its restrictive efforts to prize fighting and similar sports and to give a free rein to the enjoyment of horses and exhibitions of their prowess. He has now received from Senator J. C. S. Blackburn, of Kentucky, a letter in which the speech is commented upon as the best General Sherwood ever made. General Blackburn's letter follows:

"My Dear General: I have read and re-read your speech on the horse in the Record of March 6. It is a remarkable speech, showing a wonderful fund of information and put together in an amazingly attractive, interesting fashion. You would do well to have it published in pamphlet form. It is as attractive as it is interesting. Fairly measured, it is the best speech of your life. So far as I know, it is without comparison on the subject of which it treats. I want several copies for friends who have sense enough to appreciate it."

JUAREZ FORM CHART.

JUAREZ, MEX., SATURDAY, MARCH 13, 1915.—Ninety-fourth day. Jockey Club Juarez. Winter Meeting of 116 days. (8 books on.) Weather clear.

Winner—Br. g, by Blues—Reseda (trained by C. Timberlake).

Went to post at 2:29. At post 2 minutes. Start good and slow. Won easily; second and third driving. LITTLE BLUES began well on the outside and, taking the lead quickly, ran well in the going and won in a canter. BROOKS raced well and outgamed SAVINO for second place. The latter came from the rear and made a fast finish. LITTLE LUCK raced well. VELDT and MISS SLEETH were caught in a jam after the field had gone fifty yards and were knocked to the rear. The winner was entered for $300; no bid.

Winner—B. f, by Luck and Charity—Succeed (trained by T. Polk).

Went to post at 2:58. At post 2 minutes. Start good and slow for all but GLEAM o'DAWN. Won driving; second and third the same. MAKE GOOD went to the front with a rush and won all the way, but was tiring badly at the end. ALICE TERESA was always in closest pursuit and made a game finish. ZANGAREE closed a gap and outstayed LA CAZADORA for third place. The latter was pocketed next to the rail in the early running and moved up resolutely when clear on the last turn, but tired in the stretch. BREEZER finished well. CESARIO quit early. The winner was entered for $200; no bid.

Winner—Ch. m, by Albula—Marie Bolton (trained by W. M. Lee).

Went to post at 3:28. At post 3 minutes. Start good and slow. Won driving; second and third the same. JENNIE CRAWFORD raced into quite a lead in the early running, but came wide as she turned for home and, losing ground, barely lasted long enough. LITTLE BIRDIE saved ground close to the rail, then bored over against JENNIE CRAWFORD and failed to quite get up. CAPT. DRUSE came from the rear and finished gamely. DR. NEUFER moved up on the last turn, then fell back in the stretch. BIRD MAN seemed unable to run well in the going. The winner was entered for $200; no bid.

Winner—Ch. f, by Prospero—Charley's Aunt (trained by J. L. Beckham).

Went to post at 3:58. At post 4 minutes. Start good and slow. Won driving; second and third the same. AUNTIE CURL raced in close quarters until the stretch turn was reached, where she was taken to the outside and, responding gamely to punishment in the final sixteenth, wore THISTLE BELLE down in a drive and won in the last stride. THISTLE BELLE set a good pace for the going and only succumbed right at the end. MERCURIUM was outpaced and ran poorly in the going. The others were beaten off. The winner was entered for $400; no bid.

Time, 25⅕, 52, 1:06⅗, 1:14⅖. Track heavy.

Winner—Ch. f. by Cesarion—Edith Mc (trained by J. Umensetter).

Went to post at 4:29. At post 1 minute. Start good and slow. Won driving; second and third the same. MRS. Mc sprinted to the front at once and, after racing ANNUAL INTEREST to defeat, swerved to the outside in the stretch and just lasted long enough to win. RUSS SAND ran well and, finishing with a rush, just failed to get up. ANNUAL INTEREST raced in closest pursuit to the stretch and tired. ZINKAND made up much ground from a slow beginning. The other three showed early speed, but all quit in the stretch drive. The winner was entered for $200; no bid.

Scratched—19630^{3}Amity, 108; 19640 Lehigh, 115; 19627 Kathryne Roberts, 103.

Overweights—Annual Interest, 1 pound; Ooma, 2.

Winner—B. m, by Captain Sigsbee—Bink (trained by I. Striker).

Went to post at 4:57. At post 1 minute. Start good and slow. Won easily; second and third driving. ROSE ONEIL followed ASA HERNDON in closest pursuit to the stretch, then raced into a long lead and won in a canter. VOLADAY II. closed a gap and made a fast finish. ANDREW O'DAY raced well all the way and finished gamely. ASA HERNDON led until well down the stretch, then quit and had been caught in the barrier, which tore his mouth, causing him to bleed. HOISINGTON ran well. The winner was entered for $300; no bid.

Scratched—19631 First Star, 112.
